Headline:

Damp start to Saturday then dry with sunny spells developing.

This Evening and Tonight:

A dry and clear evening. Cloud will increase overnight with some outbreaks of rain developing. The odd heavier burst is likely later in the night, especially over Argyll. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Saturday:

A cloudy damp start with patchy light rain at first soon dying out. Then dry and becoming brighter during the morning with some pleasant afternoon sunshine. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

It will be a fine settled spell of weather into the start of next week with good spells of sunshine. Perhaps some early fog patches and low cloud.
